

Draft programme

The status and prospects of project based mitigation activities after Paris

Pre-2020 support for stranded projects and implications of Article 6

Monday, May 22 2017, 15:30 to 18:00
Innovate4Climate, Barcelona, Side Event Room 4

15:30 – 15:40	Welcoming remarks Frank Wolke, UBA/DEHSt
15:40 – 15:50	Introduction Carsten Warnecke, NewClimate Institute
15:50 – 16:50	Vulnerability of existing project-based mitigation activities for discontinuation of abatement Thomas Day, NewClimate Institute Status, prospects and support options for vulnerable cookstove projects Sean Healy, Öko-Institut e.V. Reactions from panelists, including representatives from: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> » African Development Bank (AfDB) » International Emissions Trading Association (IETA) » Project developer / private sector Discussion with audience
16:50 – 17:10	Coffee break
17:10 – 17:50	Implications of project status and discontinuation risk for potential pre-2020 CER supply Thomas Day, NewClimate Institute Offset eligibility and demand from ICAO's CORSIA programme – climate and private sector implications Björn Dransfeld, the greenwerk. Reactions from panelists, including representatives from: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> » Green Climate Fund (GCF) » Gold Standard Foundation » Government / purchase programmes Discussion with audience
17:50 – 18:00	Closure Frank Wolke, UBA/DEHSt
18:00	Innovate4Climate Opening Day Cocktail